

RE-DO-RE-THINK-RE-PLAY

KRISTOF KINTERA, LUKAS MACHALICKY, JAN PFEIFFER

Exhibition opening: Tuesday, March 2, 6 pm

Open through April 1

The exhibition presents work of contemporary Czech artists, which have in common a transformative approach in their practice. Objects, environments and urban concepts are revisited offering a new, alternative perspective on daily reality.

Kristof Kintera creates sculptures and installations by combining and altering ordinary objects in unusual and provocative way. Lukas Machalicky investigates influence of books, documents and text in general on architecture and the relationships of the urban mechanism. Jan Pfeiffer in his multi-media work searches for the individual and personal space in the designed structure of the civilization. In collaboration with the Jiri Svestka Gallery and Vernon Gallery, Prague, Czech Republic.

The artists are also represented by the Jiri Svestka Gallery and Vernon Gallery at the Armory Show, Pier 94, NYC, March 4-7.

The TINA B. Festival is a unique art event, organized each year in Prague by Vernon Fine Art International. In October 2010, for three weeks Prague will again become the mecca of contemporary art. As every year, the capital city of the Czech Republic will host a gathering of artists and art work from central and Eastern Europe and other countries around the world.

TINA B. is an acronym for the English sentence 'This Is Not Another Biennial'. But the name 'TINA B.' also evokes the idea of a sensual figure – the festival's patron, a mysterious lady with an ever changing visage, attracting thousands of visitors to the Prague festival.

The festival has repeatedly been organized under the auspices and with the support of the Ministry of Culture of the Czech Republic and the City of Prague.
